Questions for Couples

What is your definition of a healthy relationship?

What is your definition of a good partner?

What does commitment mean to you?

Is there such a thing as "too much in love"?

What do you love most about your partner?

Should people in relationships have some level of privacy?

Who is the head of your family?

Relationships with people behind bars are "meaningful, but not fulfilling." Do you agree?

How do you handle arguments?

When you argue with your partner, do you argue to win or to be heard?

Do you feel that some arguing is healthy for your relationship? Do you feel that couples that argue are bound to fail?

Do you and your partner have different faiths? If so, how do you handle it?

Is your partner romantic? How?

Is it romantic for a guy to give flowers to a woman who hates flowers? Is romance a universal language or does it have to be taught?

Is love a decision or a feeling?

Is love and/or a relationship work?

Are warm and fuzzies required to be "in love"?

How can you be sure that you really love someone?
